5-7 Bamerry St, Russell Island

Incredible value here, an immaculate 3 bedroom home on two blocks of land.

A pristine home situated on a double block with conservation on the other side so that you will have total privacy always.

This immaculate home has two bedrooms and a study which has built in wardrobes so can easily be used as a third bedroom.

With cypress framing and beautiful polished cypress pine floors throughout it is easy to care for, and the owner has kept it immaculately so though the house was built in 2008 it presents as new.

The massive living area has a beautiful bay window overlooking the natural bush land of the conservation area.

This is a beautiful peaceful position in a quiet Street.

There are fans throughout the home and lots of windows for great through breezes.

The bathroom is two way from the main bedroom and there is a toilet in the bathroom as well as another separate toilet.

You can exit through the back door from the laundry to the rear of the house
