2 Camena St, Macleay Island

Architecturally Designed Home On 1,145m2 Of Blissful Treescape

For those that appreciate a well built home oozing with character, this fabulous home would certainly appeal.

Set on a large, double block, which is very private and not far from the water this land with a blissful back drop of trees also has a large grassy area for children to play.

This much loved home accommodates you over two levels of living to maximise the breeze coming through the passage between Macleay and Lamb.

On the lower level of the home there are two spacious bedrooms plus a study area, two bathrooms and laundry. Beautiful timber flooring and louvered windows.

Upstairs there is a separate lounge, kitchen and a dining area that leads to the upper deck and undercover entertaining area.

This home has been well built and well cared for, this is certainly evident upon inspection as is the serene position. A peaceful, private spot within walking distance to town.
