WATERFRONT Queenslander with dual Living - Restored to Perfection!

FALL IN LOVE!

You will fall in love with this beautiful restored original 1930's Queenslander!

Situated on a 675sqm waterfront block, you can throw your Kayak or your Tinnie straight into the water from the bottom of your garden!

The stunning accomodation comprises of 2 bedrooms and study/bedroom 3 upstairs and a granny annexe/teenage retreat downstairs, for those relatives who just don't want to leave.

On the upstairs level you are greeted by a chef's kitchen with gas cooking as well as a large dining area overlooking the stunning water and garden views. There are 3 bedrooms on this level, one currently used as a dedicated office, all are spacious and have doors leading out onto the verandah, working from home would be no problem here. These rooms are serviced by a stunning bathroom with subway tiles, beautiful on trend floor tiling and a barn door.

On the ground floor is a huge lounge dining room with its own private terrace, together with a double bedroom and a huge combined bathroom and laundry

All the classic features of a Queenslander have been lovingly restored, VJwalls, fretwork, timber floors and original looking light switches have been added, no detail has been overlooked.

This type of property is rare, particularly with direct access to water so be the first to view..... your forever home!
