31 Kardinia Street, Macleay Island

Home on large block

For the nature lover or the family just wanting peace and privacy you could not go past this family home.

Contemporary style, set at the back of the block with the great deck looking over the fenced quarter of an acre and the nature reserve over the road. There is a double lock up garage allowing for room for the boat or caravan and also a garden shed.

The aspect is north easterly and you will capture the breezes from the deck. The home is freshly painted inside and out and with new flooring. A combined lounge/ dining area, a modern yet compact kitchen and three bedrooms all with built in wardrobes.

The bathroom has a spa bath and there is a separate toilet.

Fully deducted air conditioning throughout with zone control
The laundry has direct access out to the back garden and washing line.
